MRS. DAVID LEE CARSON
the former Mannie Yvonne Nash

Announce Marriage

The marriage of Miss Mannie Yvonne Nash to David Lee Carson took place Saturday evening, July 14, at 8 p.m., in Central Baptist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. Nash, of Appomattox, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lee Carson, of Cullen.

The Rev. Winfred H. Elder, pastor of the church, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride was escorted and given in marriage by her father. The bride wore a traditional wedding gown of white silk organza fashioned with a Victorian neckline and sheperdess sleeves. A wide panel of swiss embroidered organza edged with venise lace enhanced the fitted bodice and extended down the front of the circular skirt. The tubular chapel train which flowed from the waistline was highlighted by a wide center panel of embroidered organza, the fingertip mantilla of silk illusion was bordered in venise lace. She carried a white Bible, topped with a bouquet of white daisies.

Mrs. Ray Layne, of Lynchburg, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a slipper length dress of lavender checked gingham designed in an Empire a-line silhouette with a portrait neckline. White venise lace with purple velvet ribbon pulled through accented the short puffed sleeves and defined the waistline. She carried two long stemmed daisies with lavender stremmers.

Other attendants were Mrs. Larney Scruggs of Appomattox. Miss Judy Truner of Charlottesville, and Miss Sandra Maynard of Richmond. Their gowns were identical to that of the honor attendant,and each carried a single long stemmed daisy with lavender streamers. Miss Melissa Layne, neice of the bride, was flower girl. Her dress was of white dotted swiss trummed in lavender velvet and slipper length.

Mr. Carson was his son's best man and ushers were Billy Carson of South Boston, and Roger Carson of Cullen, both brothers of the bridegroom; and Howard Lester of Danville, Jeffrey Guill of Lynchburg was junior usher and Master Tony Mann of Appomattox was ringbearer, both cousins of the bride.

Mrs. Winfred Elder was pianist and Mrs. Carter Martin soloist sang, "We've Only Just Begun" and "A Wedding Prayer"

The mother of the bride wore a long sleeve, slipper length dress of aqua polyester with matching accessories and an orchid corsage.

The mother of the bridegroom wore a slipper length dress of pink polyester with matching accessories and she wore an orchid corsage.

The parents of the bride entertained with a reception in the church fellowship hall following the ceremony.

Assisting with the reception were Mrs. Olaf Waddell, Mrs. Clarence Gobble, Miss Kathryn Sharp, Mrs. Jean Carson, Mrs. Billy Carson, Mrs. Margie Bowman, and Misses Gina and Susan Goggin.

After a wedding trip through the Smokey Mountains the couple will live in Cullen.

MRS. CHARLES THOMAS BLACKWELL
the former Miss Cathy Ann Gowin

Wed In Double Ring Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Cathy Ann Gowin to Mr. Charles Thomas Blackwell, took place Saturday evening, July 14, at eight o'clock in New Hope Baptist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Alfred Gowin of Appomattox, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Allen Blackwell of Appomattox.

The Reverend Deryl B. Holliday, pastor of the c h urch, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Palms, greens, and white and yellow flowers enterspersed with tall standards of cathedral candles were used to create the setting for the altar area of the church for the exchange of vows.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Ralph Reynolds, soprano; and Mrs. Walter Norcross, organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a traditional wedding gown of white silk organza fashioned in an Empire silhouette with a softly gathered skirt. The fitted bodice with an overlay of venise lace was highlighted by a Victorian neckline and sheperdess sleeves. Her chapel length veil of imported illusion was bordered in venise lace scallops. She carried a bridal orchid, surrounded by lily-of-the-valley and streamers, on top of a white Bible.

Miss Norma Jean Gallier, of Appomatox, was her maid of honor. She wore a slipper length gown of soft yellow sata-peau. The gown featured a crescent neckline, short cape sleeves with an Empire bodice, accented with bias folds of matching satin ribbon forming a bow at the back with three quarter length panels of the ribbon. Her headpiece was in matching color with the gown featuring a circular veil of soft yellow tulle.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert Trent, Jr., Mrs. Ronald Gown, both of Appomattox, and Mrs. Arthur Morris of Richmond. Their gowns were fashioned in mint green identical to that of the honor attendent and they each carried a long stemmed shasta daisy with matching streamers.

Miss Joanna Layne, cousin of the bride,was flower girl.Master James Allen Woody, cousin of the bride was ring bearer.

Mr. Blackwell served as his son's bestman. Ushers were Mr. Ronald Gowin, brother of the bride, Mr. Mike Jackson, Mr. Robert Winston, and Mr. Bruce Williams, all of Appomattox.

Magnolia foliage, white and yellow flowers and candles were used to decorate the church social hall where the bride's parents gave the reception.

Assisting with the reception were Mrs. Ted Layne, Mrs. Joseph Lewis, Mrs. Frank Ferguson, Mrs. Fred Godsey, Mrs. Jake Smith and Mrs. Edwin Stanley. Mrs. Raymond F. Jamerson directed the wedding. Presiding at the guest register was Miss Judy Lynn Johnson of Appomattox.

After a southern wedding trip, the couple will reside in Lynchburg.
